

Call for Papers

Fifth International Conference on MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Agence Française de Développement, Paris, June 28-29, 2012.

The French Development Agency (AFD) Research Department, the World Bank Development Research Group (DECRG) and the Center for Global Development (CDG) are jointly organizing the Fifth International Conference on “Migration and Development”. The conference is devoted to investigating channels through which international migration affects economic and social outcomes of developing countries. Possible topics include social networks and diaspora externalities, remittances, return migration, migration and the pattern of trade/FDI, brain drain, migration and institutional/technological change, migration and health, and the effect of emigration on poverty, inequality, and human capital formation in developing countries.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Alberto Alesina, Harvard University, Imran Rasul, University College London, Dean Yang, University of Michigan

Submission guidelines and timetable: Submissions of full papers (pdf files) are expected by March 15, 2012. Submissions should be sent to Mrs Laurence Wunderle at the following address: wunderlel@afd.fr. Decisions will be communicated by April 30, 2012.

Travel (economy class) and accommodation expenses in Paris will be covered for selected participants.

Organizers: Michael Clemens (CGD), Thomas Melonio (AFD), Hillel Rapoport (Bar-Ilan University and EQUIPPE)

Program Committee: Ran Abramitsky (Stanford), Emmanuelle Auriol (Toulouse), Michel Beine (University of Luxembourg), Michael Clemens (Center for Global Development), Frederic Docquier (Louvain), Giovanni Facchini (Erasmus University), Flore Gubert (DIAL, University Paris-Dauphine), Marc Gurgand (PSE), Hubert Jayet (EQUIPPE, Université de Lille), William Kerr (Harvard Business School), Sylvie Lambert (PSE), Thierry Mayer (Science Po), David McKenzie (World Bank), Çağlar Özden (World Bank), Hillel Rapoport (Chair, Bar-Ilan University and EQUIPPE), Maurice Schiff (World Bank), Antonio Spilimbergo (IMF), Dean Yang (University of Michigan), Yves Zenou (Stockholm).